Course Description:

This course studies the increasing interrelationship of the world's peoples. It includes examples of scientific, artistic, religious, and technological aspects of human behavior.

Course Organization: The course is divided into fifty lessons contained in twelve units. Lessons are mostly text with some links to outside resources. Lessons are followed by a quiz and/or assignment(s).

Materials Required:

- Computer or tablet with Internet access

Academic Dishonesty: With most correspondence courses as well as AKGrad & YKSD, honesty of parents and students is essential. If an AK Grad teacher confirms that a student has plagiarized work or used AI, the student will receive a 0 and be subject to consequences determined by their school of record.

Grading: This course consists of quizzes, assignments, and four exams. If you are struggling on quizzes or assignments, you should contact your online teacher for additional support.

- Quizzes: There are 52 quizzes. Quizzes are mostly computer scored and you can see your incorrect answers immediately so you can retake if necessary. The question format is largely multiple choice but can also include fill-in-the-blank, matching, or short answer. It is also permissible to use notes, study materials, and books on the quizzes. You have 2 tries to take each quiz and additional attempts can be given upon request.
- Assignments: There are 54 assignments. Assignments are teacher graded and require you to create a document or media to demonstrate your understanding of the material. Writing assignments vary in length from one to five paragraphs. Assignments are scored on how well you backup your answers with evidence from the course material and your investigations.
- Projects: There are 3 projects. Projects are broken into 3-5 parts and require you to complete an oral presentation on the topic. Presentations can be given over zoom with only the instructor present (cameras are not required to be on) or you can share your presentation in a video. Video presentations are preferred.

- Post-Assessments: Post-assessments are cumulative. There is a post-assessment at the end of each quarter.

The following grading scale will be used for determining your final grade. After completing the course with a "D-" or better you will receive one Carnegie credit from the Yukon Koyukuk School District.
