2. Define important concepts and vocabulary associated with the course.
3. Identify the causes and effects of different US and world events.
4. Compare and contrast events, situations, and points of view in these areas of American history.
5. Make personal connections between your life and the events, people, and cultural changes that occurred in the United States between 1877 and the present.

Grading and Assignments

Your grade in this course will be based on these assignments and exams.

Table of Assignments and Grade Percentages

Assignment or Exam	Grading	Percent of Total Grade
Discussion Boards	Teacher Graded	10%
Assignments and Note Taking Guides	Teacher Graded	50%
Quizzes	Computer Graded	25%
Midterm and 1 Final Exam	Computer Graded	15%

Resubmissions and Retakes

For information about resubmitting assignments and retaking quizzes, please contact your AK Grad instructor.

Discussion Boards

There are a total of 2 discussion boards to give you the opportunity to communicate your ideas about certain topics; to collaborate, connect with, and learn from others; and to provide meaningful and respectful feedback. Remember to follow the discussion board rules. Failure to follow the rules can put you in jeopardy of failing the assignment, and your teacher may take further action to solve the issue. Please remember to be a good digital citizen and use technology to engage in meaningful ways with others.

Assignments

At various points throughout the course, you will need to submit a teacher-graded assignment that will evaluate your knowledge of the content included in that module. Take the opportunity to apply what you have learned, and demonstrate your understanding of the lessons by analyzing and making comparisons. A rubric is included to help you review the requirements so that you include all the details in your assignment.

The assignments that have “skill” in the title of the assignment will help you develop the skill for this course.

Note-Taking Guides

As part of the requirements of this course, you are required to complete 3 Note Taking Guides. The first guide will include your notes from Modules 1–5, and you will submit at the end of Module 5. The second guide will include your notes from Modules 6–10, and you will submit it in Module 10. The last guide will include your notes from Modules 11–15, and you will submit it in Module 15. Click on the links below to preview each guide, or to download them click on the down arrow.

Module Quizzes

At the end of each module, you will submit a computer-graded quiz that will test your knowledge of the content for that module. These are open-book quizzes.

Exams

You will take a Midterm Exam that covers the first part of the course (Modules 1–8). The midterm is open-book and includes about 50 questions.

The Final Exam consists of about 50 questions and is comprehensive, but the questions concentrate more on the second part of the course. You will, however, be expected to use the knowledge you have learned in the first part of the course to make comparisons and answer more in-depth questions.

Grading

Your grade in this course will be based on these assignments and exams. Your letter grade will be calculated according to these percentages.
